WELCOME TO KNOCKHILL FROM KMSC CHAIRMAN STUART GRAY

Welcome to the Scottish and Knockhill Motor Sports Club championship event of 2026, our action-packed, anti-clockwise round.

The last round set a high bar across the board. 2025 KMSC Pre-Injection champion Ben McIuskey stepped up to the Superbike & Clubman class and took all four Clubman victories, while 14-year-old Darren Cox matched that feat with a four-race sweep in the 300s. Jack Dunabie was equally impressive with three wins of his own, and fresh off a Moto4 victory at Brands Hatch, he returns this weekend looking to go one better and make it a full sweep of four.

The Rewind event on September 6th will have expanded classic races as well as Rewind track sessions for bikes from the 70s, 80s and 90s. If you like nostalgia in the bike race and road riding scene, then this is the event for you.

This round also features the prestigious Millar Buchanan Memorial Trophy, awarded to the Rider of the Day as chosen by our dedicated marshals. The presentation will take place during Saturday evening's awards ceremony in the Paddock Cafe & Bar, where all Saturday race trophies will also be presented and everyone is welcome to join. On Sunday, podium finishers (1st, 2nd, and 3rd) across all classes can collect their silverware directly from the Scrutineering Bay after each race.

Finally, a special thanks again to our Club sponsors Reynolds Racing, Stiggy Motorsport, Shirlaws, Cupar Motorcycles, Motorrad BMW and Marin for your support this season and may I also say a huge thanks to everyone who helped host this weekend from all the marshals, medics and officials and wish everyone a safe and spectacular race meeting.

Stuart Gray
Chairman KMSC
